THURSDAY, JAN. 31, 1907.

THERE ARE TWO KINDS of girls in the world and they are seen in most every community, the girl who works and the girl who goes. We commend the former, as work lends dignity to a pretty girl as anyone else. It is an add charm to any character, to be able to say of them that are in the world, the girl who works. God combines the useful with the beautiful, she might put in her time gadding around, gossiping or reading novels, but she prefers to be of some account in the world and give out into the world as teacher, clerk, stenographer, trained nurse or house-keepers and bravely makes her own way, such are the salt of the earth, and of such are the kingdom of heaven. Give us more of them, there's room for them.

WE HEARD of a young man who remarked that the world owed him a living. It is to be hoped for his good that he will get all such enormous ideas out of his head. It is a generous error to entertain such a notion never for a moment, and I will bring him very little respect—in fact none, but contempt, rather. Instead, Young man, the world owes you nothing but on the contrary you owe the world an active honest and noble manhood a steady honest energy which will enable you to associate with the best society, a true manliness of character, that will make your friendship valuable and your companionship desired.

CRIDER-ROGHE

Secret Marriage of a Popular Young People Announced at Hopkinsville Yesterday

A COMPLETE SURPRISE TO MANY.

That Miss Annie Roghe, of this city, and Mr. Johnson Crider, of Marion, were secretly married in Evansville two weeks ago yesterday, January 9, was made public today. On that day Miss Roghe went to Evansville where she was met by her fiancé and going to the study of Rev. Wigginton pastor of the Presbyterian church, they were quietly married. After the ceremony the bride returned to Hopkinsville where she has been at the home of her mother, Mrs. John Roghe, and Mr. Crider returned to Marion, the couple preferring to keep the wedding a secret for a short time. Mrs. Crider will remain here until about Saturday when she will join her husband at Marion where they will reside.

The bride is a popular and attractive young lady. When the raid was made on the tobacco warehouses at Princeton on the morning of December 1, she was on duty alone in the Central office of the telephone company and held under guard by the raiders for fully an hour.

The groom is a prominent young business man of the Marion and Crittenden county and is a brother of Mrs. R. E. Cooper of this city. He is extensively identified with the mining interests of his county.—Hopkinsville New Era.

It was currently reported in Marion long before the above article appeared that Mr. Crider and Miss Roghe were married but in view of the grooms denial and the brides absence we thought best not to publish such good news about them.

Mrs. Crider reached Marion Saturday afternoon and with her husband left the same afternoon to visit his parents at Fredonia.

Hurrah for Miss Myrtle!

(From Houston Post.)

The world is full of women who can amuse the ordinary man. They can sing, dance or recite to him; can paint, write or decorate in a manner most pleasing, but the poor man often goes begging for a woman who can sew on buttons or mend his clothes; who can cook his food with economy and flavor to his taste.—San Augustine Vidette.

Miss Myrtle Loggins, the charming editor of the Vidette, can make the average man out hunting for a wife imagine he is being entertained by an angel, whether he does his courting in the kitchen or in the parlor. Those East Texas girls have a wonderful knack for flavoring a man's life to suit his taste, whether he be rich or poor.

SOUTHERN LEAD AND ZINC COMPANY

Louisville Men Interested in Mining in Crittenden County.

The Southern Lead and Zinc Company, recently incorporated, has elected the following officers: F. E. W. Kaiser, president; John Drescher, vice-president and general manager; Joseph Huffaker, secretary and treasurer; Robert D. Drescher, superintendent of mines.

The company, which is made up of Louisville interests, will operate in Crittenden county, Ky., where it has taken over, on a long lease, the Columbia property, a tract of about 340 acres, whereupon are located the Columbia mines, also the Eureka mines.

The ore is said to excel in richness that found in the great Southwestern Missouri district, but owing to the fact that the zinc ore is more or less mixed with fluor-spar, the machinery used in Missouri and other places has never successfully worked in this district, and new patent chemical separating process has been tried, with excellent economical results.

The mines of the company are developed and will produce from fifty to one hundred tons of ore daily.—Louisville Times.

Evidently Len is not used to such floods.

Called to Louisville

John Sedberry was called to Louisville Tuesday night on account of his brother H. D. Sedberry having had trouble with a man named R. W. Smith. Louisville papers state that Sedberry was bruised up considerably and that he shot his antagonist with a 32 calibre pistol, woundin him seriously, but not fatally.

A Death Trap.

The lake of the Marion Electric Light Co., is very dangerous, as water is drawn out from under the ice by a pipe line all the time at the rate of five thousand gallons per day, thus leaving a hollow place under the ice which settles in the middle. Children who persist in skating on this lake, after the warnings we have given are liable to slide down into the center of the lake in a bunch and be drowned. The banks prevent the ice from setting on the sides. Parents take warning, and keep your children from this lake.

MARION ELECTRIC LIGHT & ICE CO.
P. S.—This notice has been given before.

Broke Her Arm.

Ruby Braswell, the little seven-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Braswell had the misfortune to fall and break her arm last week. While not seriously hurt it will keep her out of school several weeks.
